

Community Giving to Scholarships

Your contribution to scholarships provides financial support for Northern New Mexicans on a college or career pathway. Whether they are high-performing students who excel in academics, leadership, and service pursuing a four-year undergraduate degree, or they are focused on a clear path to achieve a career or trade through a two-year degree or certificate, all LANL Scholars share a commitment to make a positive impact in their families, schools, and communities. Thank you for supporting local students!

For more than 20 years, Los Alamos Employees' Scholarship Fund (LAESF) has supported students in the seven counties surrounding Los Alamos National Laboratory. Scholarships totalling $7.6 million have been awarded to 1,500+ local students pursuing their dreams of college and career. LAESF scholarships are made possible by the generous contributions of LANL employees, retirees, and community members. Privately endowed scholarships have also been created through the LANL Foundation with donor-specified criteria.

The LANL Foundation manages the scholarship funds and program with support from a donor advisory committee. The majority of donations for LAESF comes from Los Alamos National Laboratory employees through the LANL Giving Tool. The cost of administering the program is paid for by the LANL Foundation and Triad National Security, LLC. All donations are tax-deductible.
